BOING, BOING

I'm playing with the ball.
Up and down,
With the ball.
Up and down,
In front and behind.
Boing, boing, boing, boing.
I'm playing with the ball.

I'm playing tennis.
Play with me.
I'm playing soccer.
Play with me.

I'm playing with the ball.
Up and down,
With the ball.
Up and down,
In front and behind.
Boing, boing, boing, boing.
I'm playing with the ball.

WHERE ARE YOU?

Where are you, little bird?
I'm on top of the apple tree.
Where are you, little worm?
I'm under the apple tree.

Here, here, look in the apple tree. (bis)

Where are you, little bird?
Next to the apple tree.
Where are you, little worm?
I'm behind the apple tree.

Here, here, look in the apple tree. (bis)

Where are you, little bird?
I'm in front of the apple tree.
Where are you, little worm?
I'm inside an apple.

THE POOR LITTLE CAT

The poor little cat got lost.
He can't find what he lost.
The store is very big, what can he do?
Show him where to find the things you see.
Where is the cake? It's to the right.
Where is the milk? It's to the left.
Where is the bread? Here.
Where is the honey? There.
Just in front, now you see.

ANIMAL ORCHESTRA

In the orchestra there is a dog that plays the

Peter plays the bass.
And Anne the violin.
We're all musicians.
I like it that way.

I'm a musician. We're all musicians!

TICK TOCK

Every day I hear the alarm clock.
Tick tock,
Tick, tick, tock.
It doesn't stop ticking.
It goes tick, it goes tock,
The alarm clock doesn't stop ticking.

TIME TO GET UP

Tick, tock, tick, tock, it's time to get up,
Because the alarm clock has gone off. (bis)

It rings very loudly,
To wake us up.
It rings very loudly,
And it rings for me.

MONTH BY MONTH

There are twelve months in a year and I will sing them for you one by one.

January is the first,
February, March, and April.
May, June, July, August,
September, October, November, December.

Now you know the months,
Sing them over and over again.

GOOD-BYE, GOOD-BYE, GOOD-BYE

Good-bye, good-bye, good-bye,
The class ends.
Let's sing.
La, la, la, la, la (x6)
